

LINDA CHARKER

ASSISTANT CHIEF OFFICER (RESOURCES)

NORTHAMPTONSHIRE POLICE

Linda joined Northamptonshire Police as a Chief Officer in 1999. During the previous 10 years she had worked for Buckinghamshire County Council and then later for Northamptonshire County Council. There, after a series of promotions, she became an Assistant Director of Education (Finance) and then the County Finance Officer. Prior to that Linda worked for local authorities in Epsom and Ewell, Kensington and Chelsea and Horsham.

The management of resources is fundamental to effective policing and Linda works with her Chief Officer colleagues to provide the highest quality of public service for the people of Northamptonshire and genuine value for money. Linda's broad portfolio of responsibilities encompasses Human Resources, Financial Services, Procurement, Executive Support, Estates and Fleet. She has a national role as a member of the ACPO Finance and Resources Business Area and a director of ACPO CPI.

Linda is a member of the Association of Chief Police Officers. She is a committed Christian and enjoys playing the piano, walking and gardening.
