

SUZETTE DAVENPORT
ASSISTANT CHIEF CONSTABLE
WEST MIDLANDS POLICE

Miss Davenport served with West Mercia Constabulary for nearly 20 years and has a broad operational background. This includes heading a traffic department, working in CID and being an advisor in performance management.

Suzette also spent two-and-a-half years as Divisional Commander of North Worcester division. During her time in Hereford she dealt with significant and protracted animal rights' issues.

She worked as acting Assistant Chief Constable on an ACPO led program - the development of the National Policing Improvement Agency, helping stream-line national police associated organisations, joined Staffordshire Police in August 2005 as Assistant Chief Constable (Operations) where she was responsible for Crime Support, Operations and Diversity.

In May 2007 transferred to West Midlands Police as ACC Intelligence and Local policing

She is vice president of the British Association for Women in Policing, an organisation which addresses diversity, particularly around gender-related issues.

Originally from North Yorkshire, Miss Davenport moved to Worcester to study. Hobbies include sports, gardening and trying to keep her dogs under control!
