

ALISON NAYLOR

DIRECTOR OF HR

LEICESTERSHIRE CONSTABULARY

Alison started her career undertaking a number of different roles in the UK and overseas, gaining a range of business skills, before settling into HR as her chosen specialism.

In 2003 Alison joined Northamptonshire Police as Head of HR with responsibility for the delivery of the complete range of HR services, before moving to Leicestershire Constabulary in September last year (2008) as the Director of HR.

As well as providing strategic leadership and professional guidance on all aspects of HR management, it is also the Director of HR's responsibility to direct and develop Human Resource Management strategies and policies in order to fully utilise the potential of all staff of the Leicestershire Constabulary in delivering objectives and high levels of performance.

Alison is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development