

COLETTE PAUL
ASSISTANT CHIEF CONSTABLE
SOUTH WALES POLICE

Colette Paul joined South Wales Police as Assistant Chief Constable on the 19th May 2008.

Colette joined the force from the Metropolitan Police Service. During her 25 year service with the Police she has undertaken a variety of roles, including the Anti Terrorist Branch, BCU Commander of Ealing Borough in London.

She was Staff Officer to the Commissioner of the Metropolitan Police Lord Stevens. When she left the Metropolitan Police she was the Head of Corporate Strategy and Development based at New Scotland Yard.

Colette has taken on the portfolio for 'Protective Services' and now has overall responsibility for:

- Specialist Crime, Operations & Intelligence Division (SCOID) – including major criminal investigations, Serious & Organised Crime and intelligence, Roads Policing, Firearms and Dogs.
- She also has regional responsibility for Counter Terrorism, Serious & Organised Crime and Regional Intelligence.