

HOLIDAYS in FRANCE

A very Cosy cottage FOR HOLIDAY RENTAL IN FRANCE

Shown is part of large living room of this very well equipped and decorated cottage in DURAS, Dordogne, FRANCE. (Duras is between Bordeaux and Bergerac) There are two double bedrooms and a roof terrace with table and chairs and parasol. There is a TV to video system - numerous tapes of all varieties, music centre, a library of 400 books, games etc. Large pine farmhouse dining table at this end of living room. Wood-burning stove and radiators so very cosy. Wrought iron stairway leads to kitchen with breakfast bar, two bedrooms and large shower room. Up again to enclosed roof terrace. Duras has all shops and three good restaurants a large chateau and has farmers market each Monday in the streets. The area around is rolling hills with farms nestling in lush valleys, lots of vineyards (world-renowned wines) fields of sunflowers and quaint villages where you can find restaurants tucked away and serving traditional menus cooked by Grandma...superb ! Duras has a village square with two pavement cafes one is in the sun in the mornings, the other in the sun in the afternoons....aaah!

The cottage is in a partly-pedestrianised street within the town so everything is within a short stroll (Banks, supermarket, boulangeries, restaurants and bars) you don't have to drive everywhere. The town is medieval and has ancient tower and ramparts and the chateau holds wine fetes from time to time where you buy a glass on entry, with the Duras emblem for you to keep, and you go from stall to stall sampling and buy when you come across something really special ! AVAILABLE all year round.
